Evaluation criteria for Architecture

Portfolio and Letter of Motivation give the following profile of the applicant:

- The application demonstrates strong interest in the Architecture MSc programme and presents convincing reasons for choosing the programme at TU Delft.
- The application demonstrates the ability to communicate a variety of topics in a concise and original way and to express ideas effectively in words, drawings and other media.
- The application demonstrates understanding of architectural character and quality.
- The application demonstrates an academic approach to the subject of architecture, meaning a critical, thoughtful and open attitude to design, and the ability to link conceptual understanding with practice.
- The application demonstrates problem-based, solution-oriented and coherent approaches and an understanding of the relationship between research and design.
- The application demonstrates sufficient knowledge of architectural typology and composition.
- The application demonstrates appropriate knowledge of applied building technology.

All criteria must be met. Failing on one of them can lead to a rejection.