EXTREME Architecture

The assignment consists of a design of a small building which should improve the position of children and vulnerable families on the island. There is a need for playgrounds, sports facilities and childcare facilities on the island.

The design should double as a shelter, a safe place during and after hurricanes.

The focus in EXTREME Architecture is maximum social impact using architectural and technical tools.

Related courses:
AR1AE020 EXTREME Research
AR0096 EXTREME Technology

Collaborators:
unicef

In collaboration with:
Architectural Engineering
MSc1 EXTREME Architecture